Educational Philosophies in the Home School The approach most homeschoolers take is the one with which we are most familiar, a teacher presenting information using texts and workbooks. Publishers of such curriculum are many, and each has a different philosophy of education. Most cover subjects thoroughly, and usually include study questions, enrichment activities, and projects. How to Write a Homeschooling Philosophy Statement A homeschooling philosophy statement is a useful tool both for your own planning and for explaining what your student has learned to schools and colleges. Philosophies - The Curriculum Choice A CM education is the style following that of its founder, Charlotte Mason. Its schedule features short lessons (10 to 20 minutes per subject for the younger children, but longer for older ones) with an emphasis on excellent execution and focused attention.

A Philosophy of Education (Homeschooler Series): Charlotte ... I homeschool and read a lot about education. It's one of my favorite subjects to research. I have read Susan Wise Bauer, Ruth Beechick, John Holt, and some works about Charlotte Mason's method. I am so sad I haven't read the original series earlier in my journey. This is by far the best theory I've come across. Getting Started in Homeschooling: Educational Philosophy Our homeschool philosophy is that we want to teach our children to love to learn, teach them how to learn and provide an atmosphere for learning. No preset curriculum, few textbooks (if any) and plenty of learning through everyday life.
